... Petitioner

AND

The Superintendent of Police, Ananthapur
And others.

... Respondents

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V. NAGARJUNA REDDY

WRIT PETITION No.22928 of 2002

ORDER:-

This writ petition is filed for a writ of mandamus to declare the action of respondents in interfering with the lawful activities of petitioner association such as playing Rummy game with 13 cards in the premises of the petitioner association as illegal, arbitrary and unconstitutional and for a consequential direction not to interfere with the lawful activities of the petitioner association.

In the counter affidavit filed by the Inspector of Police, I-Town Police Station, Ananthapur it is categorically asserted that on receipt of interim orders passed by this Court on 15.11.2002, the police enquired about the petitioner association and their enquiries revealed that the petitioner association was neither established nor running its activities at Door No. 14/14-A, Kamala Nagar, Ananthapur. In addition to the same, the allegation that the police were interfering with the lawful activities of the petitioner was empathetically denied.

The petitioner has not filed any reply affidavit controverting the specific allegations made in the counter affidavit nor had he filed any proof of its existence.

In view of the above no relief can be granted to the petitioner. The writ petition is accordingly dismissed.
